Open Till Midnight

Neon Artwork

In this slick urban artwork the words 'open till midnight' are illuminated in neon blue above a high contrast photographic image of the first man on the moon. The striking image is surrounded by a black, ornate frame graphic and printed onto an aluminium sheet. Mounted onto board the landscape artwork appears as if it's floating when hung against the wall. Radiating stand-out cool, this is a must-have for a modern living room, kitchen or games room, and will look uber cool contrasted with an older property.
