Etta

Sideboard

A light oak sideboard cabinet with a gloriously Art Deco style, displaying brass finish door handles and a fan-design facade. It is divided down the middle with double doors on each side and a shelf inside. The wood shows natural nooks and grains so every piece has its own quirks. Etta encapsulates the consciously decorative design-style of the 20s. Throw open the windows, mix a drink from your cabinet and listen to some ragtime jazz.
