Persis

Wall Light

Bejewelled Wall Light

The Persis brings jewellery to your walls, featuring long tapered arms bejewelled with spheres of multifaceted crystal and smooth metal. Due to the refractory nature of crystal facets, Persis plays interesting shadows along the wall. An off-white shade of pure linen is in keeping with this royal treatment. Use Persis to make a room feel more special, a bit of an indulgence, or to help ease you into a relaxed or romantic mindset.
